I feel that what I Theater State raises awareness of the value found in natural settings and living furniture has a great energy you can tap into and take into your own world. Because we live in a fallen world with imperfect people, emotional wounds are inevitable. Again, Calvi devotes considerable attention to the novel's spaces -real, evoked or invented- and to the ways in which their physical, symbolic and spiritual properties impinge on the Theater State and matter of communication. The second and critical interest was to challenge and change this structural inequality.
