In my opinion, there are three loosely defined types of contractors: . Mille excuses. However, it would be ill-advised to establish compulsory targets or set timelines. Instead of approaching the historical development of culture in linear or evolutionary terms, as one formation is succeeded by another in a process of inheritance or Aufhebung, the counter-cultural perspective outlined above suggests that our primary object of analysis might be not artistic evolution, but cultural revolution. As one year-old inheritor said: "No financial adviser ever says, 'I made less money for the client, but I got them to build affordable housing'".
